

Mayor Daniel J. Reiman

Daniel J. Reiman

Official Biography

Mayor Daniel J. Reiman, 35, is beginning his tenth year as the Mayor of the Borough of Carteret. Mayor Reiman was elected to his first term in 2002 and became the youngest Mayor in the history of the town, when he was sworn in by then Congressman Bob Menendez on January 1st, 2003. Prior to being elected Mayor, Reiman served as a Borough Councilman, a Planning Board member from 1999-2003, and on various other committees and municipal agencies. Reiman was re-elected as Mayor in November of 2006, and again in November of 2010.

Mayor Reiman serves in a full-time capacity as the Borough's Chief Executive Officer, while overseeing 175 full-time employees and a $44.5 million dollar annual budget. As the town's chief executive officer, he heads the Administration, which is comprised of thirteen departments, including; Administration, Personnel, Purchasing, Finance, Tax Collection and Economic and Community Development. He oversees the Borough's operations and policies through the department directors and is responsible for the preparation of the Borough's annual operating budget and all labor contract negotiations and Redevelopment agreements.

Civic, Professional, and Volunteer Associations:

- New Jersey Conference of Mayors
- New Jersey League of Municipalities
- Middlesex County Conference of Mayors
- New Jersey Planning Officials Association
- Carteret Planning Board
- Redevelopment Authority, ex officio
- Carteret Neighborhood Preservation Program Committee
- Library Board of Trustees
- Middlesex County Transportation Planning Authority
- Business Partnership, Board of Directors
- Children's Charity Trust, (Trustee)
- Port Authority, Commissioner
- New Jersey U.E.Z. Authority Carteret, Chairman
- D.A.R.E. N.J. Board of Directors
- Senior Housing Development Corporation, Commissioner
- Middlesex County Joint Insurance Fund, Commissioner
- Teamsters Local 97 Health & Welfare Fund, Trustee

